

ACUA Underwater Archaeology Proceedings Copyright Form

The Advisory Council on Underwater Archaeology (ACUA) is pleased to have the privilege of publishing your contributed article that you have been asked to prepare (work for hire) titled:

in the ACUA Underwater Archaeology Proceedings. So that you as author and we as publisher may be protected from the consequences of unauthorized use of your article, we ask as a condition of publication that you assign us all rights of every kind to your article, including subsidiary rights. This will enable us to obtain a United States copyright on your article. You will in turn receive a non-exclusive license to use the article without charge in any book you write or edit after it has been published by ACUA.

This assignment includes illustrations, but relates only to the particular combination of text and illustrations published in the ACUA Underwater Archaeology Proceedings, and gives the ACUA no rights for other use of illustrations. The ACUA will not put any limitation on the personal freedom of the author to use material published in the ACUA Underwater Archaeology Proceedings in other subsequent works. Copyright assignment is a condition of publication and papers will not be passed for production unless copyright has been assigned.

WHEREAS, the Advisory Council on Underwater Archaeology (ACUA) is undertaking to publish the article above named, of which the undersigned is author. In consideration of good and valuable consideration, receipt of which is acknowledged, AUTHOR hereby sells, assigns, grants, and transfers to the ACUA, for its sole use, all of his/her rights, title, and interest in and to the article above named, including the copyright and the right to reproduce and distribute. Such rights shall include the right to translate, and all right, title, and interest in and to all translations of the contribution above named. Such rights shall also include the right to renew such copyright, if the ACUA should so choose.

The ACUA, in turn, grants AUTHOR the right of republication of the article in any book which he/she authors or edits without the necessity of obtaining permission of ACUA and without payment to the ACUA. However, the ACUA requires as a condition of this grant, and to which AUTHOR does hereby agree, the placement of the original copyright notice on the article, i.e., "© Advisory Council on Underwater Archaeology (year)." AUTHOR shall also, in accordance with the usual practice of reprint publications, include the line "Reprinted by permission from the ACUA Underwater Archaeology Proceedings (Year)" whenever the article is reprinted.

AUTHOR warrants that he/she is the sole author of the contribution named above and, if the article is jointly authored, that each of the authors has authorized AUTHOR to act as their agent in agreeing to the terms of this agreement and in making the representations herein stated; that the article is original and has not heretofore been published (except that it may have been circulated as an informal working paper for limited distribution); that the article does not infringe upon any statutory copyright, common law right, proprietary right, or any other right of any person or entity whatsoever; that the article is innocent and contains no matter which is scandalous, obscene, libelous, or otherwise contrary to law; and that there is no other owner of the rights herein conveyed to ACUA and that such rights have not previously been conveyed, assigned, or encumbered in whole or in part to any other person or persons. If the article has been previously published in whole or in part in a copyrighted medium, AUTHOR agrees to assign the copyright to ACUA and AUTHOR will submit copy for credit lines with the manuscript.

AUTHOR will be given the opportunity to read and correct edited page proofs, but if AUTHOR fails to return such corrections by the date set by the production editor, production and publication may proceed without AUTHOR's approval of the edited proof.

Should the ACUA receive any requests to reprint or translate all or any portion of AUTHOR's article to be published in a reader, anthology, second serial, digest, syndication, or non-book (dramatization, motion picture [sight and sound], radio, television, electronic recording, web page), and in complying with said request, a fee or royalty is received for this use, all monies received will be divided equally between AUTHOR and ACUA. In the event the ACUA is unable after application of reasonable diligence for a period of three years to locate the AUTHOR or his/her heirs for the purpose of disbursement of fees or royalties, AUTHOR agrees that said fee or royalties shall be deemed to be a contribution to the ACUA. AUTHOR agrees to refer to the ACUA all inquiries they receive regarding permission to reprint or use in any manner the article and further agrees to promptly report to the ACUA any unauthorized reproduction.

If you, acting for yourself and as the authorized agent of all other authors (if any) of the article, agree to the terms herein stated, please indicate your agreement by signing below and immediately mail the original by post to the address provided below.
